MESSENGERS, WATCHMEN & STEWARDS

TUESDAY, 24TH JANUARY 2012
10AM-4.30PM AT CITY EVANGELICAL CHURCH, LEEDS
SPEAKER PHILLIP JENSEN

+
FREE EVENING
MEETING
MONDAY

'You know that I have not hesitated to preach anything that would be helpful to you but have taught you publicly and from house to house. I have declared to both Jews and Greeks that they must turn to God in repentance and have faith in our Lord Jesus.' Acts 20:20-21 (NIV)

YEMA's aim is to provide an opportunity for Christians throughout Yorkshire to meet together for first rate Bible ministry, training and fellowship. This is an open meeting for all Christians who want to see the church grow in our county and beyond.

At this year's YEMA, Phillip

Jensen will help us explore what it means for our churches to develop ministries that are effective both in building up the body and in reaching the lost. His own decades of experience in church leadership are founded in a deep and radical commitment to Biblical ministry. This, combined with his incisive analysis of our culture and our churches, promises to make YEMA 2012 one not to be missed.

Phillip Jensen's varied ministry continues to have a lasting impact on countless individuals and through major organisations in Australia and worldwide. Phillip also pioneered many vibrant ministries in the areas of training, university student work, church planting and publishing of Christian resources (Matthias Media). He is the author of the Two Ways to Live gospel outline.
